The Times has the following:

NEW ORLEANS, Nov 11

The situation has not materially changed. Very few official returns have been received and no accurate reports from the more remote Red river parishes. We have just received the vote of Catahoula, a Democratic parish which goes against us on the national ticket by 100 a slight gain for us. We elect a Republican member of the Legislature by three votes. This gives us the lower house and we are now quite certain of the Legislature on joint ballot.

W P KELLOGG

Gov Kellogg of Louisiana telegraphs the Herald that so many parishes in the State are so inaccessible and authentic statements of results received here up to the present time are so few and unofficial and are received vary so widely that it is impossible to give to-night any accurate statement or even an approximately accurate account

No Riots in Louisiana.

CHICAGO Nov 11 —A Times special from New Orleans says: "All reports of riots and disturbances in this city and State are entirely unfounded. Our people are quiet but intensely anxious that justice be done them by the returning board. Business moves as usual. We look to the whole country to sustain us in our rights." This is signed by a number of bankers merchants and others

South Carolina.

CHARLESTON Nov 10 —The News and Courier has just received official advices from the last of the counties hitherto reported unofficial making Hampton's majority for Governor 1 434. Tilden's majority may fall 200 or 300 behind Hampton but is certain to be over 1 000

Latest advices from South Carolina are to the effect that all the counties have been heard from officially and elect Wade Hampton for Governor by 1 434 majority, five Democratic Congressmen and the Presidential ticket by over 1,000 majority. The claims put forth by Chamberlain that the State had gone Republican can therefore be considered in no other light than a declaration that it is intended to count the Republicans in

CHARLESTON, Nov 11 —The official majorities in all the counties, compiled from returns of precinct managers, are given in an extra of the News and Courier to-night, showing 1 460 majority for Hampton in 12 counties out of the 32. Tilden's vote was 687 behind Hampton. It is believed now that the vote for electors will be very close indeed. The board of State canvassers at Columbia to-day considered the question whether they had revising jurisdiction over the returns. Attorney General Stone and another member of the board not a candidate for re-election opposed the claim, and contended that their duty was simply to aggregate and declare the result reported to them from the counties. The rest of the board, however, voted otherwise, and their decision was against this view. Chamberlain still claims the State for the Republicans by from 5,000 to 7,000

COLUMBIA, Nov 11 —Official returns of 12 counties now in with estimates made by Democrats for other counties, show a majority for Hampton of 1 428. In the twelve official counties Hayes runs 1,000 ahead of Chamberlain. From reports received from other counties it may be safely put down that Hayes will run 2,000 ahead of the Republican State ticket, and thus overcome the 1 428 majority claimed by the Democrats for Hampton. No doubt is felt here among prominent Republicans that Hayes has a majority which will be undisputed by any one. This will be after conceding the Democrats all the disturbed counties where terrorism repeating and ballot box stuffing have rolled up a Democratic majority, but the Republicans do not concede the defeat of their State ticket. The claimed majority of the Democrats have thus far been cut down in every instance by the returns. Evidence is accumulating daily of frauds, violence and irregularities, which will inevitably prove that the assertion made by Gov Chamberlain in his communication to the President as to the plans and purposes of the rifle clubs were based upon accurate information. In spite of the presence of a few Federal troops in diverged counties overwhelming numbers audacity and thorough military organization of shotgun Democracy succeeded in practically wiping out a Republican majority of 25 000 a majority composed not of lukewarm votes, but of men who would do and dare all that unarmed men anywhere would do and dare to vote in accordance with their convictions. The forces and tactics of the Democrats were concentrated on Anderson, Abbeville, Edgefield and Barnwell. Thousands of Georgians crossed the shallow Savannah river into these border counties. They freely roved from precinct to precinct by squads of fifty at a time, voting at each box. In some cases they drove the managers from the boxes and broke up strong Republican precincts. In two cases since election the managers on their way to the court house with strong Republican boxes have been waylaid and prevented from arriving in time to have them included in the official count. In more than one case polling places have been surrounded by armed men and held all day not a Republican being allowed to vote. At one place Edgefield, colored Republicans were corralled early in the morning of election day and forced at the point of the pistol to vote as desired. To count such returns is to sanction revolution not to declare the result of an election. Of course there is an overmastering desire to avoid the slightest opportunity for civil war. As to the canvass for electors that is now regarded as out of danger. It is almost certain also, that the Republican State ticket is equally out of doubt, but Democrats on the streets of Columbia openly threaten to kill the last one of the Republican canvassers if they don't count to suit the revolutionists. These threats don't come from riff raff but from the very highest. Gen Hampton more than intimates his readiness to appeal elsewhere than to the lawful organized canvassers. He said last night, when asked if he was governor that he had been elected, and if it was not so decided, he would know the reason why. If there are any reasons for sending a committee of prominent statesmen to Louisiana and Florida the circumstances here call with equal force for the same kind of moral influence. Indeed the need may be said to be greater. It seems strange that the only State in which the executive felt obliged to call upon the federal government for aid in keeping the peace before and during election should be looked upon as less inflammable than Florida and Louisiana

COLUMBIA Nov 11 —We have heard from our committees in each county of the State—in all 32—with accurate reports of votes cast. We carry 15 counties for the State ticket and 19 for the legislative and county tickets. The vote for Governor is the only one for which we have full returns. The Democratic majority for Governor is about 1 400. The balance of the State ticket and Presidential ticket have a smaller vote. The exact difference is not yet ascertained but we think all are elected. The Legislature has 124 members in the House and 33 in the Senate. We have elected 64 members of the House and 15 of the Senate a majority of one on joint ballot.

WADE HAMPTON

NEW YORK Nov 11 —Chas W Simonton chairman of the Democratic State committee of South Carolina telegraphs the Herald that the State ticket is elected by [illegible] majority and [illegible]

COLUMBIA Nov 12 —Returns which are [illegible] with few exceptions official have been received from every county in the State and give Hampton [illegible] Chamberlain 2,952 [illegible] Hampton [illegible] 1 336. Full [illegible] when received will not vary [illegible] these figures which are furnished from Democratic headquarters to-night. In 12 counties from which official and semi official returns have been received Tilden runs 991 behind Hampton and in one county leads Hampton by 91 votes which is exceptional and it is safe therefore to predict that Hayes will carry the electoral vote of South Carolina. By a misprint in the ticket of the name however, one Hayes elector loses 400 votes, and this very circumstance might possibly give Tilden the one vote now said to be needed by him to secure a majority of all the electoral votes in the Union. The Democrats claim a majority of one on joint ballot in the legislature which secures the election of a U S Senator to succeed Robertson, also a gain of two Congressmen. Gov Chamberlain still claims the State by about 3000 for the Republican State ticket and by over 5000 for the Republican electoral ticket

The Herald has the following: COLUMBIA Nov 11—I would gladly give you the statement you request but official returns have not been received from more than eight counties. The figures given are therefore mostly estimates. These estimates differ greatly. To report them in detail would be hardly worth while. You are familiar with the Democratic claims. The Republicans claim that after giving the Democrats all they could plausibly claim and accepting their figures in a great majority of counties Hayes has still a majority of about 3 300 and Chamberlain of about 2100 but Republicans insist that theirs is the best information from most authentic sources in holding all official returns now received or authoritatively reported to our executive committee gives Hayes a majority of about 7 000 and Chamberlain of 700. That this State has gone for Hayes we have not a single shadow of doubt. On either the Democratic or Republican showing we are equally sure of the election of the Republican State officers and legislature with a majority on joint ballot of over 20

D H CHAMBERLAIN

CHARLESTON Nov 11 —By latest Courier official returns Hampton's majority is 1 484. Full returns indicate that Tilden has fallen much more behind Hampton's vote than has been supposed. In 10 out of the 33 counties Tilden's majority is 453 less than Hampton's. An equal ratio of loss in the remaining 22 counties would leave less than 1 000 majority in the State

Chamberlain Stands Firm.

D H CHAMBERLAIN

The President will Insist on a Fair Count.

CHICAGO Nov 11.—The Tribune's Washington special says the President arrived at 1 P M, and by arrangement met General Garfield Senator Edmunds and other prominent men here. He is very thoughtful about the situation and has expressed a determination that there shall be an honest count in Louisiana and so far as he can control it the person receiving the highest number of electoral votes shall be inaugurated. He is keenly conscious upon his oath of office and determined to have a faithful execution of the laws. It is now conceded that the election of President will turn upon the election in Louisiana. Advices received by the President and persons high in authority show conclusively that the managing members of the Democratic committee concede that the Republicans carry South Carolina and Florida. The fact that the Democrats are sending no prominent men to Florida of itself is considered an admission that the State is conceded to the Republicans. The President thought it advisable that a number of prominent Republicans from all sections of the country, including some members of Congress, shall be present in New Orleans during the count of the vote, and has by telegraph requested them to go there

The Democratic committee addresses a letter to James O'Brien Senator Bogy, Erastus Wells and Charles Gibson requesting them to go to New Orleans to secure an honest count and adjustment of reported and threatened difficulties. Each of the gentlemen comply with the request, and at once left for the South

WASHINGTON, Nov 11 —President Grant returned to Washington this afternoon. He has requested the following prominent gentlemen to go to New Orleans to-night to inspect the counting of the vote in Louisiana. Hon Wm M Evarts, Judge E W Stoughton, Gen John A Dix and Gen Jas H Hanayline (?), of New York, Senator Sherman, Hon Stanley Matthews of Ohio, Hon Courtland Parker of New Jersey, Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, Gen Ben Harrison, of Indiana, Senator Logan, of Illinois, Hon W D Kelley and Hon John Schoenburg, of Pennsylvania and Hon John A Kasson of Iowa. These, and a few others, have been invited. Nearly all of them have been heard from and have accepted

Looking Out for a Fair Count.

NEW YORK, Nov 10 —The following have signified by telegraph their intention of starting at once for New Orleans in response to the request of the National Democratic Committee: Hon Lyman Trumbull of Illinois, ex U S Senator Hon Andrew Curtin of Pennsylvania, ex Senator Hamilton of Maryland, Hon Seth Doolittle of Wisconsin, ex U S Senator, Lieut Governor Colbaugh of Illinois, Judge J D Stallo of Ohio, Hon Oswald Ottendorfer, of New York, Hon Henry Watterson of Kentucky, Hon Theodore F Randolph, of New Jersey, Hon J B Smith of Wisconsin, ex Governor Hon C Carroll of Maryland, ex Governor Bigler, of Pennsylvania, Hon G V Fox, ex Assistant Secretary of Navy, Hon Samuel J Randall of Pennsylvania, Prof Sumner of Yale College, Hon H D McHenry of Kentucky

PHILADELPHIA Nov 10 —In accordance with the request of Governor Kellogg of Louisiana, that prominent men should go from the North to inspect the counting of votes of that State, the President has invited the following gentlemen to proceed to New Orleans for such purpose: Hon W D Kelly of Pennsylvania, Gen J A Garfield of Ohio, Hon J A Kasson of Iowa, Hon John Schoenberg of Pennsylvania, Gen J S Palmer of Illinois. It is understood that these gentlemen have accepted and will reach New Orleans within a few days

ST LOUIS Nov 11 —In compliance with the invitation and urgent request of the executive committee of the Democratic State Central Committee State Senator Bogy, Jas O Broadhead, Erastus Wells and Cyrus Charles Gibson of this city will start to-night for New Orleans to be present at counting the vote of Louisiana

Hons D M Cheney and Henry Watterson of Kentucky, left for New Orleans last night. Senator McDonald, Gen Love and Gov McCreery, Congressman Blackburn and ex Gov Palmer of Illinois compose another party now here in answer to the call of Hon A S Hewitt of New York. They leave to-night

CINCINNATI Nov 11 —Hons Stanley Matthews, Job Shaw and ex Gov E F Noyes left for New Orleans to-night

INDIANAPOLIS Nov 11 —Gen John Love and McDonald left this morning, and Geo W Julian left to-night for New Orleans

BOSTON Nov 11 —The Evening Traveller says Charles Francis Adams started for the South to-day

Trouble Threatened.

CHICAGO Nov 11 —The Tribune's Washington dispatch says the political situation is unchanged. The Republicans claim Florida and Louisiana and with increasing confidence. The Democrats say the evidence to dispute their claim is wanting. There are those among the Democrats who boldly threaten revolution in the event that South Carolina shall cast her ballot for Hayes. These threats are confined to adventurous class of floating population. If gentlemen from New York are to be believed, so important a personage as Gen McClellan sees reasons why he should fight to-day though he found many obstacles on the Potomac, though the best men of both parties who are as likely to have potent voices in the councils of the nation are desirous to have an honest count with submission to the result be it whatever it may be. Some Democratic leaders are rash enough to suggest that the House refuse to meet in joint convention if Louisiana goes for Hayes. They say that owing to the non existence of the 22d joint rule the Republicans would undoubtedly claim the right of the President of the Senate to count or reject any vote and there would be no appeal from such determination. But as the law of 1792 prescribes the votes must be counted on the second Wednesday in February in joint convention they cannot be so counted if there is no joint convention, and there can be no such convention except by the voluntary action of both Houses. The refusal to hold such convention they think would throw the election of the next President to the next House. In devising this revolutionary scheme the fact has been overlooked that the Forty fifth Congress does not meet in March and cannot under the constitution assemble before December 1877 unless the President of the United States deems that a constitutional emergency exists which shall authorize him to convene it. There is also much speculation upon the query if Congress provide no lawful means of adjusting the difficulty before the middle of February and if the determination of the count of the electoral vote should be postponed until after March 4th, 1877 who would be President. Would chaos have come in the republic. Two solutions are suggested. 1st that the Senate is the continuing body that in the absence of the President or Vice President the President pro tem of the Senate is the constitutional President of the United States by virtue of his office the heads of all executive departments and all federal officers of the country are continued by the language of their commissions. The second theory is that the President of the United States and heads of departments and occupants of other offices would be continued in power under their commissions until their successors had been qualified by taking the oath of office. For this they say there is the distinguished authority of Caleb Cushing now present here on business relating to the Spanish mission. He has been willing to express his views upon that grave question and says the Constitution knows nothing of parties and conventions which are wholly outside of it. No act of theirs has any legal effect. The Democratic party as such can only act through extra conventions. He finds the only danger in possible action of the present House with its Democratic majority, that there may be a conflict of opinion and action between the Senate and House which would be a serious difficulty. It is possible though at the same time improbable, that the 4th of March next may arrive without a lawful declaration of the election of President in conformity with the prescription of the Constitution. For this contingency he could imagine several remedies for such a case, but all extra constitutional. He says the people of the United States are, however, habituated to self government. There has been one great civil war but that was entered upon deliberately and on a full consideration though through actions of State governments of separate States of the Union and there only lies danger of civil war in the United States. Once and once only had 24 hours elapsed after the death of one President without an inauguration of another and everything went smoothly enough in the hands of heads of the departments. It can do this 24 days and weeks as well as 24 hours. If the House is perversely opposed to the Senate it will leave the government in the hands it is now in, a state of things the House does not desire. In conclusion, Mr Cushing thinks Congress should pass some laws regulating all these questions, which may at some future time become practical even if they do not at this election

A Plot to Capture the Doubtful States.

NEW YORK Nov 11 —The Herald publishes the following under date of Washington Nov 11th: The following may seem a wild statement, but it is given to me as the inside view of the situation. I telegraph to help you to solve the great puzzle. I am told that Republicans have discovered a plot on the part of Democrats to buy up scalawag returning boards of South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida and this is the secret of Secretary Chandler's movement, his intention being to block the game. President Grant too, seems to have caught the alarm, for his message to Gen Sherman betrays his anxiety for fair play for Hayes. John Kelly, Felix McCloskey and several other New York Democrats are working suspiciously. It is thought that their part of the plot is to make sentiment for Tilden among Republicans in Washington, and to soften the way for the announcement of the election by the conciliation of some of the leading office-holders and promising them places under Tilden, who, as I am informed does not want any "damned row," but wishes to go into office peacefully and quietly, or in other words, while those who have gone to the three States yet in doubt to buy the election for Tilden, are doing the work down there, Kelly's men are to forestall trouble here by creating the impression that Tilden is undoubtedly elected. The first move in this game was made last night when telegraph bulletins were made to announce a Democratic success in all the doubtful States. A well known lobbying ex newspaper correspondent is supposed to have been taken into the plot and is charged with perpetrating the as yet unauthenticated telegram from Senator Conover abandoning Florida to the Democrats. Money for carrying out the scheme is supposed to be furnished chiefly by Morrissey and New York gamblers who are likely to lose enormously unless Tilden is elected. In this connection Gen Garfield who believes confidently that Hayes is elected says that discredit or doubt thrown over Republicans in South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida is the work of New York gamblers, who under cover of it have been hedging their bets on Tilden

Secretary Morrill Telegraphs Rothschilds.

NEW YORK, Nov 11 —A Graphic Washington special says: Secretary Morrill has sent an official cable dispatch to the Rothschilds, the financial agent of the government, "Hayes has been elected President of the United States." Secretary Morrill bases his opinion on private dispatches he has received from both Florida and Louisiana from men whom he knows to be reliable Chicago Times on the Question.

CHICAGO Nov 11 —The Times has no doubt of Tilden's triumphant election and considers argument to the contrary puerile

What the World Thinks.

NEW YORK Nov 10 —The World says returns received last night from the three disputed Southern States confirm our previous report that all three have given a Democratic majority. The Republicans, however still claim all of these States not on the returns for local positions which give no figures but simply by declarations of the fact that the President has ordered troops to those States as evidence that the Republicans believe that both have gone Democratic and that extraordinary work has to be done to count a majority for Hayes

NEW YORK Nov 11 —The World has an editorial extract as follows: No candid Republican who reflects on the voting last Tuesday in the great Northern commonwealths of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois who will observe by what small a percent those States have been carried and then look at the tremendous majority for Tilden in Texas, Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi and Alabama can doubt that the Tilden electors received a great popular majority in Louisiana. Independently of these general considerations our private information from authentic sources does not permit us to doubt that Tilden has fairly and honestly carried the State. The practical question presented to those who love peace is is there any power state or national which can prevent Gov Kellogg from suppressing this fact here. It will be a portentous national peril if Kellogg and his agents in Louisiana thwart the will of the voters in that State expressed last Tuesday by counting in and otherwise declaring Hayes electors. Gov Kellogg is a creature of Grantism and the carpet baggers. He bears no such relation to Louisiana as does a Northern Governor Democrat or Republican to a Northern State. A word from his creators and justice enters in that State upon its grievous course. Will they give the word?

A Suggestion of the Programme.

NEW YORK Nov 11 —The Sun replying to an inquiry whether if Hayes shall be elected by 185 votes and before the meeting of the electoral college one Republican elector died what would be the result says the electoral college does not vote as a corporation—each elector has one vote for President and one for Vice President. In case of the absence of any elector, either from death or otherwise his colleagues cannot cast his vote. In the case supposed, the three Florida electors could only cast three votes. So that Hayes would not receive 184 votes. Tilden could not be declared elected because he would not have received 185 votes. The result would be the throwing of the election into the House of Representatives. This suggests the inquiry who here is really true

London Press Comments on the Election.

LONDON Nov 8 —The Daily News this morning discussing the Presidential election in the United States says: The result cannot surprise any attentive observer of American politics. It cannot cause a reversal of the legislation of the years immediately succeeding the war. It is a change rather of men than measures. The News says it is no injury to American credit and regards the payment of the national debt in specie as safe whichever party may be in power. It bases its generally favorable anticipations in great measure, on the personal antecedents and moderation of Tilden who is likely to exercise a restraining influence upon the extreme sections of the party

The Doubtful States.

NEW YORK Nov 12 —The Times says: Our dispatches from South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana during the last twenty four hours give the situation as practically unchanged. We still claim, with increased confidence, all of these States by majorities substantially the same as previously published.

From South Carolina the Democratic dispatches yesterday gave up the State to Hayes by admitting that Tilden's majority if he had any would fall below 100. Similar reports from Florida and Louisiana may be expected from the same source in due time

Secretary Chandler Interviewed.

WASHINGTON, Nov 12 —Secretary Chandler, to the surprise of most people, who thought he was in South Carolina or Florida was discovered at his desk as usual, to-day in the Interior Department. When questioned regarding the Presidential controversy, he said, with great seriousness "Hayes is elected, but the result will depend upon the counting of the vote of Louisiana." Being further asked what would be the result eventually he replied: "It is a matter of guessing and you can guess as well as I can." He is quite worn out with his labors in New York, of which State he does not think highly and is of the opinion if it had done more the result might have been different. From another source it is learned that he finds fault with the lack of money contributed—only $12,000. Later in the evening while he was in the neighborhood of the telegraph office, he was asked, "Who is elected?" to which he replied "Hayes, if he is not killed off with the gun-shot policy." He pronounces ridiculous the idea of his going to New Orleans and on the whole he seems to be quite carelessly contemplating the future. He is not in the most amiable state of mind since the close of his political duties in New York. He called to see the President immediately after his return, and was in consultation with him a short time

Palmer on Grant.

LOUISVILLE, Nov 11 —Ex Gov Palmer, in an interview with a reporter, gave as his opinion of the President's directions the following: If Grant were a statesman, he ought to be impeached and deposed from his place for issuing such orders; but as it is Grant, nobody expresses much surprise. Grant has one leading idea of the Government and that is that he and the army are the only power in this country, and that they are entirely sufficient. He does not know nor care for constitutional limits. To be brief he is not responsible Proclamation from J. G. Thompson.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 11 —The following proclamation extraordinary was issued by J G Thompson this evening and bulletined in front of the Democratic headquarters in this city

The claims of the leading Republican newspapers and committees to the effect that Hayes is elected is without foundation and a conspiracy to usurp the government. It is anarchy, it is revolution, it is the desperation of desperate men, it will all fail. The people have declared by their ballots that Tilden is elected President by 203 electoral votes and by a majority of 400,000 of the popular votes. They will see to it that their voice, expressed at the ballot box, shall be respected. Be patient and wait the retributive justice that will surely fall on the heads of the men who are devising conspiracy to break up this republic.

J G THOMPSON,
Chairman Dem Executive Committee

California.

JACKSONVILLE, Oregon Nov 12 —Returns from Del Norte county Cal received here to-day, give Tilden 38 and Luttrell 40 majority

Illinois Legislature.

CHICAGO Nov 10 —The Republicans have on joint ballot in the legislature of Illinois 106, Democrats 98 Independents 5

Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS Nov 11 —Indiana counties all in, showing Tilden's majority 5 421

North Carolina.

RALEIGH Nov 11 —Additional returns continue to increase the Democratic majority in the State and it may reach 17 000. A painful anxiety in regard to the Presidential election is manifest in the city to-night among both parties

WILMINGTON, N C, Nov 11 —The Democratic majority in this State will probably range from eleven to thirteen thousand. No changes in the Congressional delegation

Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Nov 11 —Nearly complete returns are in. Tilden's majority is not less than 48 000 the majority of Porter for Governor being something less over Thomas, Independent Democrat. The Democrats elect eight of the ten Congressmen a loss of one,—McFarland in the 1st district. The legislature which elects two U S Senators will have a Democratic majority of 60 on joint ballot,—the Senate standing 21 Democrats to 4 Republicans and the House 57 Democrats 2 Independents and 16 Republicans. The election excitement has somewhat abated under the general conviction that Florida South Carolina and Louisiana have given Democratic majorities and under the settled conclusion that all three of these States can hardly be counted out

GALICE CREEK MINING ITEMS

[Jacksonville Sentinel]

From a gentleman just from Galice creek we learn the following concerning the mines in that section

Work on the Yank ledge has been suspended for over a month

August Earle is now working a rich gravel claim. It is reported that with an imperfect apparatus and small force he receives a clear profit of over $100 a week

Ankeny & Co owners of the Courtney gravel claims have run a bedrock in their claims over 100 feet. They are also constructing a new ditch and have just received an eleven inch hydraulic pipe for working their diggings

Work on the Sugar Pine quartz ledge owned by Green Bros is being pushed forward. They are engaged in running a tunnel [illegible] feet in length to strike the ledge and should it develop well they will put in machinery for working the same next season

The English Co are now working the Reed diggings with hydraulic and have about completed their new ditch two miles and a half long, and will probably turn in the water on the [illegible] These claims [illegible] work [illegible] claims pay well and the company owning them will doubtless get large yields this winter

The Centennial Mining Company a gravel mining company near the Yank ledge on the north side of the river have recently constructed a ditch for working their claims which will carry about 1,000 or 1 200 inches of water. They have just ordered 1 000 feet of 15 inch hydraulic pipe and an 11 inch giant nozzle. It is evident that this company mean business

President Grant's Views.

NEW YORK Nov 12 —The Herald has the following interview with President Grant at Washington last night. Upon being asked what his solution was of the present situation he said: Everything now depends upon a fair count. The charges of corruption and fraud made against the Republicans by their political opponents was then discussed, and he said politicians in the South may instigate all sorts of atrocities, and even be parties to them to the extent of committing murder and nothing much is said or thought about it. But when fairness in elections according to the lawful plan is insisted upon great complaint is made and there is a charge of unfairness. He went on to say that in order to be satisfied as well as to have a similar conviction carried to the minds of the American people that there would be a fair count of the vote for electors in Louisiana he had made up his mind some days since to invite to go to Louisiana public men of responsible character and respectability whose opinions and judgment would carry conviction to the whole American people. It was not done as a counter movement of the Democrats or under lead of their political managers, which latter action, however he understood was in compliance with the request of the people of the State. He seemed to feel that the end in view of favoring justice and honesty would be subserved by the course taken. Incidentally he remarked that the sending of troops into South Carolina and the Southern States had produced a good effect and had maintained peace. When the present trouble and condition of the public mind was referred to, he said that he did not anticipate any trouble if proper precautions were taken in time. All that a rupture of the peace needed for its prevention was firmness, promptness and decision as well as having force enough at command to nip it in the bud. Here the President for a moment reviewed an important epoch in our national history, in the case of Buchanan in 1861. He said, if a temporary, vacillating and undecided policy had not been followed there would not have been the civil war and its disasters. At one time, had he acted with decision, he might have stopped the whole thing with a brigade of troops, but he waited until the magnitude of the disturbance had got past his control

"Do you anticipate trouble in the South, Mr. President?" I asked

"Oh no" he replied with a smile, "I have made it a rule throughout never to anticipate trouble. I never look for it until it comes; but I believe in being prepared for it and having the means at command to check it."

Referring to the result of the presidential election, brought from him the opinion he has heretofore invariably expressed, that Gov. Hayes is the fairly elected President; but it is a matter of duty and propriety, he said, to submit to the result, as it will be honestly declared upon the counting of the vote

Gov. Rice to [illegible]

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Gov. Rice, of Massachusetts, has sent the following from this city to President Grant at Washington: "The entire Republican and Independent press of Massachusetts, heartily sustain you in sending troops to the disputed States to preserve the public peace. The people will as loyally abide the result of the election when honestly determined.

ALEX. H. RICE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A dispatch to the Herald, signed by a large number of merchants of New Orleans, says of Kellogg's and Packard's dispatches claiming this State: Estimates from all the parishes have been officially or semi-officially heard from, except two, Cameron and LaFourche. The majority for Tilden is 7,786. Cameron and LaFourche will make the majority over 8,000. There has been no disturbance before, during or since the election.

The Latest from South Carolina.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12 —The Herald has the following reports from the chairman of the Democratic committee in South Carolina: Democratic counties give the following majorities: Aiken, 742, Abbeville, 187, Anderson, 2,980, Barnwell, 1 [illegible], Chesterfield, 650, Edgefield, 3,[illegible]5; Greenville, 2,996, Horry, 1 352, Lancaster, 350, Lexington, 872; Laurens, 1,161; Marion, 745; Marlboro, 337; Oconee, 1,539; Pickens, 1,648, Spartanburg, 5,200, Union, 755, York, 862; total, 24,254. Republican counties give the following majorities, Beaufort, 5331, Charleston, 6,226; Colleton, 1,118, Chester, 390 Clarendon, 550; Darlington, 700; Fairfield, 673; Georgetown, 1,766, Kershaw, 299, Newberry, 365, Orangeburg, 1,602; Richland, 1,822, Sumpter, 1,453; Williamsburg, 606 total, 22,743. Aggregate Democratic majority, 24,254, aggregate Republican majority, 22 743. Democratic majority for Governor 1 506. Tilden runs about 600 votes behind Hampton

Another dispatch to the same paper says: However, in the twelve counties from which official and semi official returns have been received, Tilden runs 991 behind Hampton, and in one he leads Hampton 21 votes, which is exceptional; and it is safe, therefore, to predict that Hayes will carry the electoral vote of South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 12 —The latest corrected returns give the Democrats the State ticket by 1 318 majority. Tilden's electors in 13 of 32 counties run 712 behind the State ticket. Gov. Chamberlain claims the State for the Republicans by 2,000.

[illegible] from Florida.

SAVANNAH, Nov 12 —A special to the Morning News from Lake City, Fla says the returns are in from all but four counties. Basing those counties upon the Democratic majority of 1874, gives the State to the Democrats by 800 majority. All the Democratic counties show a heavy increase, and the majority will be, at a safe estimate, from 1,200 to 1,500 Democratic. Tilden will not fall 300 behind the State ticket.

The Count in South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S C Nov 12 —The board of state canvassers meet to-morrow to count the vote. Senator Gordon arrived here to-day, and will be present during the session of the board of canvassers. A number of Northern senators are expected to-morrow. The Democrats are still confident that the State has gone for Tilden and Hampton

Sec 22, chap 8 of the revised statutes, provides that the Secretary of State, Comptroller General, Attorney General, State Treasurer, Adjutant and Inspector General and the Chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections of the House of Representatives, shall constitute the board of State canvassers, four of whom shall be a sufficient number to form the board. The following are the members of the board: Henry E. Hayne, Secretary of State; Thos C Dunn, Comptroller General; Wm Stone, Attorney; F L Cardoza, State Treasurer; H W Purvis, Adjutant and Inspector General; M J Hirsch chairman of committee on privileges and elections of the House of Representatives. All the members of the board of canvassers are Republicans. Hayne, Cardoza and Dunn are candidates for re-election. Hirsch, who is a candidate for Solicitor of the third district is not acting on the board of canvassers at this time. Hayne, Cardoza, Stone and Dunn constitute the board as now organized. The board claims the right to decide who are elected, and there is no appeal from their decision except to the courts in the case of Governor and Lieut Governor. However the final decision rests with the legislature. Unless there is a contest for county officers the county canvassers decide who are elected. The decision of the board in throwing out votes in any county for alleged fraud is virtually ends the matter so far as they are concerned. Everything appears quiet and there is no excitement to-day, but all are anxiously awaiting the meeting of the board of canvassers. A number of prominent citizens from all parts of the State are present

MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 13, 1876.

STILL IN SUSPENSE.

There is little added to the news we gave yesterday morning, so far as reliable news of the result of the Presidential election is concerned. The telegraphic battle still goes on and waxes even warmer. There is something more of a show of figures, but it is a show on both sides, and we are afraid a show without much regard to the [illegible] on either side. The cry of fraud be[illegible] somewhat louder, and it is now apparent that howsoever the matter shall terminate, the side that shall lose will always suppose the result to have been [illegible]ieved by fraudulent means. The results are so contradictory as to confound the reader, whether he endeavors to as[illegible] what may be the condition of af[illegible], or what party is practising the [illegible] wrongs in order to secure the [illegible]. What we said Friday we can [illegible] now—wait.

[illegible] is particularly unfortunate that the [illegible] of the national contest depends [illegible] vote of three Southern States, all [illegible] which are very close. Under any cir[illegible] it would be every way better [illegible] whole country, if one or the other [illegible] had received a majority with[illegible] of the States which have been the [illegible] of so much disorder and violence [illegible] the last three or four years. Pres[illegible] Grant has said truly that no one [illegible] to take the office of President [illegible] reach it by fraud. He might [illegible], that the man who takes [illegible] under a general suspicion of [illegible] by a very large propor[illegible] of the United States, takes [illegible] position whose difficulties [illegible] be equal to its honors. Yet [illegible] little ground to hope for [illegible] of this election which will not [illegible] difficulties. Neither party [illegible] able to place the victory of its can[illegible] such suspicions. It has al[illegible] to this complexion, and the [illegible] done now is to have a [illegible] the vote, and then let the [illegible] so conduct the admin[illegible] Government as to dis[illegible] the criticism of [illegible], and remove the suspi[illegible] which he takes office.

[illegible] of the President to men [illegible] in the North, to go to [illegible] the counting of the [illegible] as it is by the Chairman [illegible] National Committee, [illegible] a number of men enjoy[illegible] and public confi[illegible] to smooth the way [illegible]. The men named are, [illegible] recognized as just[illegible] of them are known [illegible] but the majority are [illegible] to act fairly, and [illegible] in public life. But [illegible] vote, not as to what [illegible] to the State re[illegible] as to the fairness of [illegible] the votes were se[illegible] is one which it is [illegible] for the distinguished [illegible] to correct or assist.

America has [illegible] of her achievements [illegible] international exposition. [illegible] perhaps, than anything [illegible] have done, to remove the [illegible] in Europe that Ameri[illegible] barbarous race, with little [illegible] to the society of the [illegible] civilizations, except [illegible] ingenuity. There is [illegible] culture to which Amer[illegible] attained, but there is cul[illegible] nevertheless, and culture [illegible] can not despise.

The [illegible] from abroad carry [illegible] of America and Amer[illegible] be kept lively by corres[illegible] by a more attentive obser[illegible] news. New commer[illegible] formed upon acquain[illegible] the visit of these intel[illegible]. Interchange of thought [illegible] and more free. We [illegible] a part of the civilized [illegible] scholars and statesmen [illegible] better position. Our men [illegible] receive a juster estimate [illegible], and those readers [illegible] numerous. America will be [illegible] as well as one of the [illegible].

[illegible] S. Hewitt, Chairman of the [illegible] Committee, has a charm[illegible] above all party considera[illegible] matters of great public moment [illegible]. This is forcibly il[illegible] entirely non-partisan invita[illegible] gentlemen to go down [illegible] the counting of the votes. [illegible] a number of gentlemen well known [illegible] the list with a general [illegible] of them as "Republicans and [illegible]," whom he urgently requests to [illegible] to Louisiana "without distinction" of [illegible] see that the job is done fairly, de[illegible] in good order. That has admira[illegible]. It captivated us so, on the first read[illegible] that we came nigh overlooking the fact [illegible] one of these "Republicans" and [illegible]," without distinction of party, was [illegible] supporter of Tilden, and nearly [illegible] one an old-line Democrat. Such dis[illegible] of non-partisan spirit are positively over[illegible].

[illegible]tor Kelly has a card in this morning's [illegible] saying he did not send the telegram [illegible] in the Eastern dispatches stating [illegible] the election in Oregon was close, with [illegible] in favor of a small Democratic ma[illegible]. Come to think of it, we almost agree [illegible] the Senator that it was idiotic for any [illegible] to believe he had done so. Now, if Gov. [illegible] will come out and say he did not send [illegible] to the effect that it would require [illegible] it to tell how the State had [illegible] we shall be happy again. But the infor[illegible] that he did send such a telegram comes [illegible] e seriously fear the governor [illegible] it.

TILDEN'S SOUTHERN CLAIMS LETTER.

Our readers were afforded, some time ago, an opportunity to see the salient points of Mr. Tilden's letter on the subject of the payment of the Southern claims. The uncertainty in which the result of the election is still enveloped and the possibility that he is President elect of the United States, gives peculiar importance of any utterance of his upon a question of so great moment. We therefore present below the entire letter, which certainly is sufficiently definite and specific to hold him to an unqualified opposition to the payment of the Southern claims, unless, as he took occasion to remark in his letter of acceptance, the pledges made by politicians before election are not held binding after. Here is the full text of the letter:

NEW YORK, Oct. 24, 1876.

To the Hon. Abram S. Hewitt—SIR: I have received your letter informing me that Republicans high in authority are publicly representing that "the South desire, not without hope," to obtain payment for losses by the late war and to have "provision made for the rebel debt and for the losses of slaves."

As the payment of such losses and claims was not deemed important enough to deserve the notice of either convention at the time it was held, you also ask me to state my views in regard to their recognition by the government.

Though disposed myself to abide by the issue as made up already, I have no hesitation to comply with your request.

The fourteenth amendment of the Constitution expressly provides as follows:

"The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States, nor any State, shall assume or pay ANY debt or obligation, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but ALL such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void."

This amendment has been repeatedly approved, and agreed to by Democratic State conventions of the South. It was unanimously adopted as part of the platform of the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis, on the 28th of June, and was declared by that platform to be "universally accepted as a final settlement of the controversies that engendered civil war."

My own position on this subject had been previously declared on many occasions, and particularly in my first annual message of January 5, 1875.

In that document I stated that the Southern people were "bound by the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth constitutional amendments; that they had joined at national conventions in the nomination of candidates and in the declaration of principles and purposes which form an authentic acceptance of the results of the war, embodied in the last three amendments to the organic law of the Federal Union, and that they had by the suffrages of all their voters at the last national election completed the proof that now they only seek to share with us to maintain the common rights of American local self-government, in a fraternal union, under the old flag with one constitution and one destiny."

I declared at the same time:

"The questions settled by the war are never to be reopened. The adoption of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Federal Constitution closed one era in our politics. It marked the end forever of the system of human slavery, and of the struggles that grew out of that system. These amendments have been conclusively adopted, and they have been accepted in good faith by all political organizations and the people of all sections. They close the chapter; they are and must be final; all parties hereafter must accept and stand upon them, and henceforth our politics are to turn upon questions of the present and the future and not upon those of the settled and final past."

Should I be elected President, the provisions of the fourteenth amendment will, so far as depends on me, be maintained, executed and enforced in perfect and absolute good faith. No rebel debt will be assumed or paid. No claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave will be allowed. No claim for any loss or damage incurred by disloyal persons arising from the late war, whether covered by the fourteenth amendment or not, will be recognized or paid. The cotton tax will not be refunded. I shall deem it my duty to veto every bill providing for the assumption or payment of any such debts, losses, damages, claims, or for the refunding of any such tax.

The danger to the National Treasury is not from claims of persons who aided the rebellion, but from claims of persons residing in the Southern States or having property in those States who were, or pretended to be, or who for the sake of aiding claims now pretend to have been, loyal to the government of the Union. Such claims, even of loyal persons, where they are from acts caused by the operations of war, have been disowned by the public law of civilized nations, condemned by the adjudications of the supreme court of the United States, and only find any status by force of specific legislation of Congress. These claims have become stale and are often tainted with fraud. They are nearly always owned in whole or in part by claim agents, by speculators or lobbyists, who have no equity against the tax-payers or the public. They should, in all cases, be scrutinized with jealous care.

The calamities to individuals which were inflicted by the late war are, for the most part, irreparable. The government cannot recall to life the million of our youth who went to untimely graves, nor compensate the sufferings or sorrow of their relatives or friends. It cannot readjust between individuals the burdens of taxation hitherto borne, or of debts incurred to sustain the government, which are yet to be paid. It cannot apportion anew among our citizens the damages or losses incident to military operations, or resulting in every variety of form from its measures for maintaining its own existence. It has no safe general rule but to let by-gones be by-gones, to turn from the dead past to a new and better future, and, on that basis, to assure peace, reconciliation and fraternity between all sections, classes and races of our people, to the end that all the springs of our productive industries may be quickened, and a new prosperity created, in which the evils of the past shall be forgotten. Very respectfully yours.

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

While the merchants and other business men of New Orleans telegraph to the North that there is no foundation for the reports of disorders in Louisiana, either before, during or since the election, the U. S. Marshal telegraphs that the entire poll-lists of Madison parrish, in which Hayes had 1,400 majority, were seized and destroyed by Kuklux, and bogus lists prepared and substituted for them. Which of these stories is correct, is left to inference. The destruction of the lists of itself would be not at all unlikely, but the statement that other lists were substituted, makes rather against the marshal's story. Still, the stake is large, and the disposition of the white-liners to accomplish their end, may account for even this act.

The course of the President in calling upon fair-minded men to go to Louisiana and see that the vote of the State is honestly counted, ought certainly to be received as a sufficient answer to the charge made by the Democrats that he has ordered troops to New Orleans and Tallahasse to override the law and count the Republicans in whether they have been fairly elected or not.

A telegram states that Gen. John S. Phelps, Democratic nominee for Governor of Missouri, has a majority of 40,000. This is the largest majority ever given in that State. His opponent was Hon. G. A. Finkleberg, an able and popular man. Gen. Phelps is father to the wife of our fellow-citizen, Mr. J. B. Montgomery.

Perhaps the Democrats who are so exercised over the fancied danger that Tilden is to be cheated out of the vote of Louisiana remember the way Clay was swindled out of the vote of that State in 1844, by the Democrats, and are afraid of reprisals. We hope there will be no retributive justice of that sort.

THE DOUBTFUL STATES.

George A. Steel, Esq., hands us the following telegrams received by him, which, from the character and relations of the parties sending them, are certainly entitled to as great weight as any estimates received from any source:

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 11, 1876.

To G. A. Steel: South Carolina is safe for Hayes and Chamberlain.

R. B. ELLIOTT, Chairman.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Nov. 11, 1876.

To G. A. Steel: We send greetings: Florida joins Oregon in a certainty for Hayes.

D. EAGAN.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 12, 1876.

To G. A. Steel: Louisiana, despite the violence which stifled the large Republican vote of six parishes, is Republican, and will be so found and declared by the lawful returning officers.

PITKIN, U. S. Marshal.

RETURNS FROM LAKE COUNTY.

Mr. George A. Steel, chairman Republican Central Committee, received the following dispatch yesterday:

ASHLAND, Nov. 12, 1876.

To G. A. Steel, Chairman: McPherson, messenger to Lake county, brings this: Lake county, official all but two precincts, gives Tilden 61 and Lane 56 majority. The two precincts to hear from estimated at 30 Democratic.

Jimmy Dowling is happy. It is a girl.

The "corner" on hard wood continues.

There was a snow-like feeling in the air yesterday.

To-day the Alden Besse will commence to receive spars.

About $40,000 in coin was brought up on the last steamer.

The stilt-walking mania has broke out again among the boys.

Studies will be resumed at Harrison street school this morning.

A dividend has been declared by the Home Mutual Insurance Co.

The election has proved a golden harvest to the telegraph companies.

War will be declared against Turkey one week from next Thursday.

Letters for "Quarto," "Tenant," and "M," in this office, awaiting owners.

No fire alarms for many days, although there promised to be one a few days since.

It is estimated that 1,900 hogs have been slaughtered since the packing season opened.

J. W. Strong, the genial book agent, has removed his office to the Cosmopolitan block, Front street.

Chas. Bray will soon publish the Waverly Waltz, composed by him and dedicated to the Waverly Social Club.

The Harrison-street school building has been thoroughly fumigated, and there is no need of fearing the contagion.

The first party given this year by the East Portland Social Club last Friday evening, was a very enjoyable affair.

The Coos Bay telegraph line is in good working order, and we have closer communication with that section.

A Miss Bell, recently from the East, and Dr. Littlefield, are the latest accessions to the Catholic choir of this city.

The smoke of the battle fought last Tuesday has cleared away, but the killed and wounded have not been counted yet.

Lovers are disconsolate now. There is no moon and the cold evenings prevent prolonged gate swinging confabs.

Wm. B. Jones, son of J. F. Jones, is among the passengers on the incoming steamer. He returns from a trip to the Centennial.

Four vessels are lying abreast at the foot of D street—the Jamaica, Cortic, Alden Besse and P. J. Carlton. It looks like business.

Charles Lee, held to answer for an attempt to compound a felony, has found it impossible to give the required bonds, and consequently he went to jail.

Messrs. Henry and Peter Timm, lately of Iowa, said to be excellent performers on various instruments, have been added to the membership of the Portland City Band.

The ladies having in charge the fair to be held for the benefit of St. Vincent's Hospital, are working like beavers. The forthcoming affair gives promise of being a grand success.

On the last passage to this city, from up the Wallamet, the steamboat Occident ran against a snag and knocked a hole in her hull. The Orient has taken her place till she can be repaired.

When a fellow asks a comrade into a tobacco store and invites him to smoke, a peculiar feeling strikes him about the pit of the stomach when the comrade selects a twenty-five-center.

Frank Hood, a young tinsmith formerly employed in this city, was arrested in Yamhill county on Thursday upon a warrant charging him with the larceny of a suit of clothes from the Emmet House.

A young fellow got drunk Saturday evening and began to amuse himself by firing off his pistol at the corner of Third and Alder streets. This morning he will be called upon to answer a charge of disorderly conduct, in police court.

CARD FROM SENATOR KELLY.

From the following note it will be seen that Senator Kelly did not do the idiotic thing which the Eastern dispatches said he did:

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In the OREGONIAN of this morning you publish what purports to be the substance of a telegram sent by me to my wife on the 10th inst., that the result of the election in Oregon was in doubt, with the chances in favor of a small Democratic majority. You further say, "It was positively idiotic for ex Senator Kelly to send such a telegram."

Let me say that it is more idiotic to suppose that I sent such a telegram, which I did not. I sent no dispatch of any kind to my wife in regard to the late election.

To relieve me from the charge of idiocy, I respectfully ask that you will publish this statement. Very truly yours, &c.,

JAMES K. KELLY.

PERSONAL.

We acknowledge the courtesy of a pleasant call last evening from Hon. H. A. Webster, Collector of the District of Puget Sound.

Dr. LaDow, of Pendleton, brother of the late Hon. Geo. A. LaDow, who, at the time of his death, was Congressman elect from this State, gave us a call last evening.

Arthur Crisfield, Esq., for some time editorially connected with this paper, returned last Saturday evening from a trip east of the mountains. He became so favorably impressed with the "land o' bunch grass," that we understand he proposes soon to locate in that portion of the State. Mr. Crisfield has the best wishes of a large number of friends in whatever business he may choose to engage in the future.

WHO IS ELECTED!!!

The excitement has been intense—the suspense has extended over several days, and the reports come in first one way and then another—this has resulted almost in the utter distraction of the minds of all parties, whether Republican or Democratic—but the result now comes in—the die is cast—one and all concede that Wilson & Speck are way ahead in their assortment of Cigars and Tobacco and choice variety of Fruit, and beat all other competitors in the field.

Overcoats and ulsters at Kohn's.

The Centennial Commission unanimously ratified the action of the judges, and the public will indorse the decision of these ablest of mechanical experts. A claim of equally distinguished honor for any other sewing machine is only an attempt to hoodwink the people. This stamps the "New Wheeler & Wilson" as the standard sewing machine of the world. Agency 95 Third street.

Mrs. Dr. B. A. Owens. Office and residence, east side First street, between Yamhill and Taylor. Special attention given to Women and Children complaints. Also gives Medicated Vapor Baths in treating Rheumatism and Chronic Diseases.

Boys' clothing—all kinds at Kohn's

Captains and pilots will note the fact that Peter Wilhelm has fitted up two rooms for their especial use at the Fountain, corner Ash and First streets. English papers on file short ly and everything cosy.

Returned.

DR. WIGHTMAN has again returned to this city, where he can be seen at his rooms by those suffering from the Piles or Hemorrhoids, or other diseases of the rectum.

N. B. The "Wightman Process" gives immediate relief, and cures in a very short time without the use of the knife, caustic or ligature. Persons living at a distance and suffering, can receive the remedy by express, C. O. D. (Not Mail). All letters containing stamp for return postage will be promptly answered. Rooms on Third street between Washington and Alder. P. O. Box 241, Portland, Oregon.

DR. C. T. WIGHTMAN.

I am the only man that sells the ROYAL SEAL CIGAR, at Louis Lendine's.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice, mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. Is extraordinarily successful in treating female complaints.

Sore eyes speedily relieved. The worst form of piles cured, and the most malignant cancers eradicated root and branch without the use of the knife, or the money refunded.

THE TERRITORIES.

Clarke county, W. T., gave a majority of 28 votes "against constitution."

Six head of fine sheep were killed by a bear at Chambers' prairie, near Olympia, last week.

H. H. Gridley and J. H. Cradlebaugh are elected justices of the peace in Vancouver precinct.

M. R. Hathaway, Republican candidate for joint councilman, has 60 majority in Klickitat county.

The election all over Washington Territory was very quiet. The law, closing saloons on election days is much respected in that Territory.

S. W. Brown, of Vancouver, got his knee cut and was bruised up generally, last Tuesday, by his horse running away. No serious damage.

Gen. Cuvier Grover has arrived at Walla Walla. He takes command of the 1st Cavalry, with headquarters at that place. Gen. G. is a brother of Oregon's Governor and Senator elect.

This Centennial November weather is in marked contrast to that of last year. November 15th, 1875, the ground was covered with six inches of snow in Vancouver.

The Seattle Intelligencer says: "Mr. Cornelius Dinann, a farmer on White river, came to town on Saturday to procure a gun to shoot some bears that were troubling his premises. After reaching home he loaded the gun, and, being a novice in such matters, put in an over charge. In discharging the gun, shortly afterward, it burst, blowing his left hand almost to pieces."

The Seattle Tribune says: "The inspector, judges and clerks of election in this precinct were employed 44 hours in receiving and counting the votes, during all of which time their labors were not suspended but once, and then for lunch, on Tuesday. From that hour until the close they never left the room, and were the tiredest, sleepiest crowd of counters that ever sat around an election board in Washington Territory. Not one of them hankers for another job of the same kind."

RESOLUTIONS OF ENDORSEMENT.

HALL OF WILLAMETTE ENGINE CO. NO. 1,
PORTLAND, October 6, 1876.

At a regular meeting of Willamette Engine Co. No. 1, held at the company's hall October 5, 1876 Chief Engineer J. H. Lyon was nominated for the office of Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department and the following resolutions unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our fellow member and present efficient Chief Engineer J. H. Lyon is the unanimous choice of this company for Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department, and this company does hereby nominate him for such office.

Resolved, That the uniform courtesy displayed by Chief Engineer Lyon, and the able, fearless and impartial manner in which he has performed the duties of his position, merits his unanimous re-election.

OREGON.

There is considerable sickness throughout Yamhill county.

A daily mail route is badly wanted from Coos bay to the valley via Gardiner.

A grand excursion is talked of on the new boat McMinnville on the first trip she makes from Yamhill's shores.

Dr. Watts was 46 years old last Tuesday, and was elected one of the Presidential Electors. Who else was elected on their natal day?

W. K. Neil was sentenced by Judge Boise, at Albany, on Friday of last week, to be hanged, at 1 o'clock, Dec. 22, 1876. He evinced but little emotion during the trial or upon receiving the sentence.

Wm. Chrisman, who lives near Amity, states that in his neighborhood the farmers are busily engaged in plowing, the ground being in excellent condition, although in the forenoon it is most too wet to sow.

The Yamhill County Woman Suffrage Association will meet in the courthouse in Lafayette on next Wednesday, Nov. 15th, at 10 A. M., to transact such business as may properly come before the association.

Plowing has commenced in earnest among Jackson county farmers, as the recent rains have put the ground in good condition, and they are now endeavoring to get in their crops while the good weather lasts.

The Yamhill Courier says: From what we can learn there will be more grain sown this fall than ever before. If the present weather continues it is all that can be asked. May the farmers reap a bountiful harvest next season.

The Astorian says: "Jerry Crowley, known here for several years as an impecunious old man of all work, was found dead in his bed in the old building near Ferrell's mill, on Wednesday last. He was out and voted on Tuesday, which was the last ever seen of him alive."

A man by the name of Luce who is now being tried on three indictments of larceny, is either a raving maniac, or else deserves a year or two for contempt of court. He uses the most profane language imaginable, passing curses and epithets upon the court in an undesirable manner during session, and requires the attention of three or four men.

Citizens of Hood river have organized a company called the Water Supply Company of Hood river valley, for the purpose of bringing Hood river out on the valley for irrigation. Capital stock $3,000, 150 shares, $20 each. The shares are nearly all taken. The company means business and intend having the water flowing over the valley in one year.

In Spencer precinct, Lane county, A. L. Humphrey, who is past 80 years of age, voted for Hayes and Wheeler and Williams; and Ed. Neely, Sr., who voted for Henry Clay in 1824 and Jackson in 1828, voted for Tilden, Hendricks and Lane. Enos Ellmaker comes next, who voted first for Jackson in 1828, Mr. Ellmaker voted for Hayes, Wheeler and Williams.

The load of cinnabar that was taken from the Beaver creek mines to the retort of the Nonpareil Quicksilver Manufacturing Company, near Oakland, Douglas county, yielded about 55 per cent. of quicksilver. About 2,600 pounds of ore were taken there, from which they got 1,400 pounds of quicksilver. This is a large yield and demonstrates the fact that these mines equal any of the kind on the coast.

The Dallas Itemizer says: "Uncle David Grant brought into town during the week two squashes, the weight of one of which was 100 and the other 187 pounds. One measured 7 feet 4 inches by 6 feet 10 inches. The other measured 7 feet 3 inches by 6 feet 9 inches. Mr. Grant raised these squashes on his place about 2 miles below town. They beat the big squashes at the State Fair. He has plenty more of these big squashes. Mr. Grant carries the palm so far as heard from. Our Eastern readers will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly."

Speaking of the newly elected city officers of Dallas, the Itemizer says: "Our new city fathers, as far as we are able to learn, are of poor but rather respectable parents. While some of them may have told a lie, so far as it is known they never cut down any cherry trees. They are tolerably honest, that is, so far as we know, they are. It is thought they are men of sufficient capacity to fill the positions to which they are elected. They have the appearance of respectable persons when they are dressed up, and we understand they are respectable, and it is generally conceded that the city will be an honor to them, or that they will be an honor to the city."

The Influence of Malaria Counteracted.

That the harmful influence upon the human system of malaria may be effectually counteracted has been demonstrated for years past by the protection afforded the inhabitants of vast miasma breeding districts in North and South America, Guatemala, Mexico and the West Indies, by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Used as a preventive, they have invariably been found to be a most reliable safeguard against chills and fever, bilious remittents, and still more malignant types of malarious disease, and when employed as a remedy have always proved their adequacy to the task of eradicating such maladies from the system. For disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels which in hot climates and miasmatic localities are particularly rife, the Bitters are a prompt and thorough remedy. They also strengthen the system, tranquilize the nerves, promote digestion and sound sleep, and impart unwonted relish for food.

Take a Hayes lunch, when you feel hungry, at Barnes', Central Market.

THE SKIN that is afflicted with Salt Rheum, the Itch, or other eruption, promptly acquires health and softness under the purifying and emollient influence of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, which is indorsed by the medical fraternity.

A case of chronic rheumatism of unusual severity, cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, is noticed by one of our exchanges. A large bunch came out upon the breast of the sufferer, and appeared like part of the breast bone. Used internally and externally.

The sweetest word in our language is health. At the first indication of disease, use well known and approved remedies. For dyspepsia or indigestion, use Parson's Purgative Pills. For coughs, colds, sore or lame stomach, use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

LYON'S KATHAIRON makes beautiful, glossy, luxuriant hair; prevents its falling out or turning gray. It has stood the test of 40 years. Is charmingly perfumed, and has no rival.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM preserves and restores the complexion; removes freckles, tan and sallowness; makes the skin soft, white and delicate. Its application cannot be detected.

CUT THIS OUT.
IT MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE.

There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Diseases, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. DR. A. BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderous cures astonishes every one that try it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist and get a sample bottle for a bit and try it. Large size 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Centennial Admissions.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—Admissions to the Exhibition to-day, 15,125. The display can now be seen with more comfort than formerly. The dismantling of the Exhibition has begun, but it does not much interfere with sight seeing. Several of the State buildings have been closed and will soon be removed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Paid admissions on the 10th 106,171 making a grand total of 8,004,214.

Going for the Remainder of the Property.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—At a meeting of citizens to day favorable to forming a stock company to secure the main building as a permanent Exhibition, Clement C. Biddle stated that notice of application for a charter has been given for the new company, to be called the International Exhibition Company of Philadelphia, with a capital of $600,000, divided into 6,000 shares of $100 each. It was also proposed to receive subscriptions to the stock, payable in cash as called for. The board of directors appointed forty stock commissioners. The stock is payable by transfer of stock of the Centennial board of finance, the stock of the International Exhibition Company being issued at par for the actual cash that may be realized. The amount needed was $250,000 cash, which may be asked for from time to time and the remainder in stock. It was stated the Pennsylvania Railroad held $114,000 in stock, and that they would be equally willing to subscribe liberally to the enterprise. The same statements were made in regard to the Lehigh Valley, North Pennsylvania and other steam routes. Near $100,000 in cash and $50,000 in stock were received. The meeting adjourned to meet Tuesday next in common council.

End of the Centennial.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—The exhibition grounds were visited by immense crowds to-day. The buildings were not open. The centennial commissioners will probably adjourn Tuesday for several months, while the accounts of the final reports are being made upon beer and soda. It is estimated they will reach half a million dollars. Most of the State buildings have already found purchasers. The German pavilion has been formally presented to the city of Philadelphia.

Notable Death.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12, 4 P. M.—Capt. Alfred E. Gray, the banking officer of the Pacific Mail fleet, died yesterday.

Acquittal.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.—In the criminal court Judge Brown gave his decision in the case of Dutt, Farmon, Sparks and Blackston, and a policeman recently indicted and on trial during the past week for participating in the riot at the Hayes and Wheeler meeting at Cross street market on the 17th of September last acquitting them of the charge. The prisoners were discharged. The trial was before the judge without jury. After trial, the policeman was reinstated in his position by the police commissioner.

Shot through the Head.

CUSTER CITY, Nov. 10.—The body of a man named Charles Foster was found to day three miles north of Gold City, Dakotah, shot through the head.

New Mines.

There is an immense stampede from Deadwood for Wolf Mountain, where marvelous discoveries are reported to have been made, surpassing any in Deadwood.

Indian War Party.

SAGE CREEK, Nov. 10.—Passengers on coach report passing a large Indian trail, 13 miles north of here. From appearances it was that of a war party.

Gold and Stocks.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Gold closed at 9[illegible]; money 2; governments dull and lower; stocks active, and better prices: Western Union, 72¼; Quicksilver, 11; Pacific Mail, 24¼; Mariposa, 3; W. F., 81½; N. Y. C., 102⅛; Erie, 9⅞; Panama, 12[illegible]; U. P. 59¼, bonds, 105⅝; C. P. bonds, 110.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, Nov. 11.—Wool quiet. Sales were smallest for several months. Prices steady and firm. Ohio has been quiet. There has been a demand for medium fleeces for the Philadelphia market, and better prices were obtained for several round lots. Ohio and Pennsylvania having been sold at 42@45c. Sales of fine fleeces were comparatively small—ranging from 46@47c for XX, and 40@46c for X Michigan.

Arrival of Tweed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The steamer Franklin has arrived at St. Thomas with Tweed.

Moulton-Beecher.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Judge Westbrook has decided to grant motion of defendant case in Moulton vs Beecher, to change venue to a northern county, and Delaware county to be named, unless good reason for not doing so is given.

Cheerful [illegible] for [illegible].

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Prolonged suspense relative to the election result has temporarily paralyzed business of all kinds here. Traffic demands upon merchants have been limited all the week, and the few sales effected are of diminutive proportions. However, Republican gains in Congress, and the certainty that Democratic majority in the House is very small, greatly reassures business men with reference to permanent future of trade, because even if Tilden is elected, the Democrats are powerless for mischievous legislation; for this reason it is believed trade will soon resume the march of gradual improvement recently apparent.

Speech of the Czar.

ST PETERSBURG Nov 11 —The Golos publishes the speech delivered by the Czar in Moscow yesterday in reply to an address of citizens. The Czar said I thank you for your sentiments respecting the political situation which is now more clearly defined than before. You know that Turkey has yielded to my demands for an immediate end of the useless slaughter in Servia and Montenegro In this unequal struggle the Montenegrins as heretofore have shown themselves real heroes Unfortunately the same cannot be said of the Servians notwithstanding the assistance of our volunteers, many of whom shed their blood for the Slavonic cause I know all Russia joins me in warmly sympathizing in the sufferings of our brethren and co-religionists The true interests of Russia are, however, dearer to me than all My wish to the uttermost is to save Russian blood. Therefore I have secured and will strive to obtain a real improvement of the Christians by peaceful means In a few days negotiations will commence at Constantinople My most ardent wish is that we may arrive at a general agreement. Should this, however, be not achieved, and should I see that we cannot obtain guarantees necessary for carrying out what we intended to demand from the Porte I am firmly determined to act independently I am convinced that the whole of Russia will respond to my summons, should I consider it necessary, and Russia's honor require it. Moscow will lead the van by its example May God help us to carry out our sacred mission

OBJECTS.

This Savings Bank has been formed at the desire and under the auspices of thirty one gentlemen citizens of Oregon and Washington Territory who have become stockholders therein along with certain other gentlemen in Scotland to supply a want hitherto much felt namely an Institution where similar to those in California the working farming and other classes of Oregon and Washington Territory may from time to time deposit their various savings along with the Bank's own capital for investment in Oregon and Washington Territory (to which the Bank's operations are limited) secured from Mortgages over City Properties Farming and other Lands for the purpose thereby of assisting to develop the industries of the North Pacific coast.

The Bank's Directors and Officers in Oregon having had considerable experience in finance and real estate securities, their policy will be to guard depositors moneys and the stockholders capital by loaning only on first class securities, high interest being a secondary consideration The Bank does not therefore seek to employ its funds in a commercial banking business confining its operations strictly to those securities with which its Directors are familiarly acquainted such as real estate loans advances on bonds assignments and similar securities which are not fluctuating in value hence no loans will be made on Promissory Notes alone or Bills of Exchange and such like

Security to Depositors.

The security for repayment of Depositors moneys is two fold

1st Not only the mortgages assignments bonds and other pledges on which the Bank's deposits are carefully loaned and the real estate secured there by which must be located in Oregon and Washington Territory but also

2d The Bank's own $300 000 capital specially pledged for the safety of depositors in order that all losses (if any) shall be made therefrom thus forming a double security for depositors moneys

No charge for entrance fee or pass books

Deposits received from $2 50 and upwards.

Rates of interest on application

Hours from 9 A M to 3 P M

Certificate of Incorporation Constitution Articles of Association Regulations and By laws for depositors may be seen at the Bank's office
